

Please DON'T Come Home

On CNN just now, a so-called 'human shield' in Iraq was shouting at a US marine. In a thick accent – an accent from somewhere in England – the 'human shield' shouted "Go home, Yankee. We don't want you here!"

All the jubilant Iraqis there might feel like replying: "No! YOU go home!" But speaking as residents of England, may we say: please, human shields, don't come home.
