

E. Nough Ought To Be A Bush Speechwriter

He suggests a quip. Brilliant!

[Note: Readers who had no interest in politics in 1988 should look here first for one of the great put-downs. Readers who are unaware that the John Kerry campaign have just, embarrassingly, mistaken their candidate for a different Senator, Bob Kerrey, look here.]

Reagan Did It Best

I remember loving it when at the 1992 Republican convention, Ronald Reagan made fun of Bill Clinton for comparing himself to Thomas Jefferson.

Reagan made fun of his own age and put down Clinton by saying:

"This fellow they've nominated claims he's the new Thomas Jefferson. Well let me tell you something:

I knew Thomas Jefferson.

He was a friend of mine.

Governor, you're no Thomas Jefferson!"

Ya know, you're the second person so far who has told me that I should write speeches for Republicans. Really, folks, I'm quite happy in my current, not-at-all-political job. ;-)

A belated thanks for the compliment,

E. Nough
