

Three Links About Middle-Eastern Death Cults

MEMRI TV Project monitors the Hizbollah television station in Lebanon: Mothers of Hizbullah Martyrs: We are Very Happy and Want to Sacrifice More Children.

HonestReporting describes some of the so-called 'incitement' by which Palestinians are drawn, from earliest childhood, into the suicide-bombing death cult:

'The venomous propaganda in the Palestinian media and education system is the root and foundation of the expansion of the suicide terrorism phenomenon,' said Sharon.

Unfortunately, the typical news consumer has no idea what Sharon is talking about, since, as HonestReporting has continually indicated, the western media have largely turned a blind eye to the incitement against Israel and the U.S. that permeates Palestinian culture.

Meanwhile in Iran:

The Islamic death cult in Iran is running a registration drive, signing up thousands of would-be murderers to carry out attacks against the US, Israel, and ... Salman Rushdie

The world will not be at peace until such cults are history. Why do the media barely mention them and never discuss their mode of operation and their political effects?

Why?

Because the model of the world that they are selling doesn't have a space into which this information fits.

Indeed

That is indeed the question. As far as Iran goes, even the US administration falls way short of confronting the Iranian regime the way it deserves (and which is the only reasonable policy if worse tragedies are to be avoided in the future)

Islamic murdering cults

Why don't the leaders of those cults commit suicide instead, They would do the world a hell of a favor> and we wouldn't have to look at their ugly bearded faces any more. Young people should be taught to live not to die. They really prove that they hate God and all his children which are all the human race. Religion has no impact on God. It's what is in your heart. I hate those idiots who preach hatred and strive on dominating women and killing innocent civilians. They are cowards of the worst kind and makes me ashamed to be human

Is Islam sick ?

Islam and the Arab world have been sick, psychopathic religion/cultures for hundreds of years. The West and President Bush had better face up to this and prepare plans to finally and completely end the psychopathology and lunacy of the fascist Islam/Arab societies, just as President Roosevelt and Churchill confronted the psychopathic German Nazis and the brutal Japanese militarist expansionists and totally vanquished and destroyed them. Notice how democratic and peaceful these former enemies have been for 60 years now. The same must be done with the Islamofascist psychopaths and the lunatic Islam/Arab clergy.
