

Setting The World To Rights

Ideas have consequences.

Poll: What Will Be Found First?

Following the Coalition's victory in Iraq, what is going to be found first? Vote in our new poll in the sidebar on the right.

Saddam Hussein: Saddam is captured alive or found dead by Coalition forces and this is verified by DNA matching.

Baghdad Bob: aka Comical Ali, aka Mohammed Saeed al-Sahaf, the former Iraqi Minister of Information, is captured alive, found dead, or appears in public in a new job.

The 'smoking gun': Nuclear, biological or chemical weapons, or incontrovertible evidence that they were recently destroyed or smuggled out, are found in Iraq. (N.B. a barking moonbat being able to utter the words "that evidence was planted by the Evil Bush Administration" does not count as making the evidence "controvertible", nor does shrieking "but the US and Israel have WMD too!")

The quagmire: It is found that far from having ended swiftly, the war turns out to be another Vietnam, naturally covered up by the US and UK governments.

Janeane Garofalo's apology: Well you never know...

None of the above will ever be found: Well – never is a long time. Say, a year from now.

Which one?

How do we know they have the DNA of the Real Saddam Hussein?

by a reader on Wed, 04/23/2003 - 19:15 | reply

It's all a big lie, I tell you!

They won't find anything. The whole thing is one big conspiracy dreamed up by the Jews/US government/aliens/anti-Libertarians/kids to overthrow The Powers The Be and become the preeminent Big Brother State which will take YOUR money.

I've made up my mind. Don't confuse me with facts.

Me? Paranoid?

DNA

"How do we know they have the DNA of the Real Saddam Hussein?"

I read somewhere that they got a sample from Dan Rather's blue dress.

Quagmire

When I saw that the quagmire option had some votes, I thought people were kidding... until I received an email saying "Don't be so sure it won't be another Vietnam." Hel-lo?

IT seems none of the above

According to the globe and mail, Bagdad Bob tried to surrender and was turned down!

Not yet decided

Bagdad Bob tried to surrender and was turned down!

That doesn't count. For Mr Sahaf to win, he has to be captured alive, found dead, or appear in public in a new job. For 'none of the above' to win, a year has to pass.

You can still buy the original CHI ceramic flat iron. It's the cheapest model in the CHI range and falls into the medium priced category for flat irons. It comes with 1" ceramic plates, heats in seconds and is still a very good hair styling tool. But if you're
